

Coming to your school!

Award-winning Canadian Catholic recording artist

Mark Mallett

Singing and songwriting since the age of nine, former television journalist Mark Mallett tours extensively throughout North America and abroad giving concerts, missions, and speaking & singing at conferences.

Mark recently had the privilege of singing at the Vatican in Rome and presenting his music and ministry to Pope Benedict XVI. His music appeals to all ages, and he has a particularly powerful message and ministry to Catholic youth.

Mark and his wife Lea have seven children together and make their home in Alberta, Canada. They travel together as much as possible, and their children are a vital part of their ministry.

Mark's music has a high appeal to all ages and is available on pre-order for parents, teachers, and students. Simply fill out the form to the right, cut along the dotted line, and have your child submit it to the school office prior to the concert. CD's will be available for pick-up following the performance. Also available for pre-order is Catholic author Carmen Marcoux's novel "Arms of Love"--a must-read for teenagers and their parents. The single "Arms of Love" was written to accompany the book.

If you'd like to find out more about Mark's ministry or want to preview his music before ordering, visit his website (below) to hear mp3 song clips from all his releases.
